China Southern Airlines

Baggage Rules

(Version 2-2026)

Baggage refers to the personal articles of passengers carried in the course of travel by agreement with China Southern Airlines (hereinafter China Southern)，including checked baggage and unchecked baggage. Checked baggage refers to the baggage handed over by passenger to be taken care of and transported by a carrier which will issue baggage claim tags. Unchecked baggage refers to the baggage taken care of by the passenger him or herself.

1 Unchecked Baggage

1.1 General Provisions

China Southern will inspect passenger's baggage before check-in and boarding. China Southern reserves the right to determine at our discretion whether passenger's baggage needs to be transported as carry-on baggage or checked baggage, taking the safety and comfort of you as well as other passengers into account.

For the safety of passengers and crew members, please put your carry-on baggage in the overhead bin or under the seat in front of you. Passengers seated near emergency exits (including those seated near wing exits and in the first row) must put their baggage in the overhead bin to ensure that the baggage will not hinder evacuation in case of emergency.

Items exceeding the carry-on limitations must be transported according to the checked baggage regulations, or Cabin Seat Baggage.

1.2 Limits to Carry-on Baggage

The passengers are required to check all the relevant regulations and information regarding carry-on baggage allowance and items allowed to be carried.

1.2.1 Rules of carry-on baggage for each passenger (excluding except infant not occupying a seat) are shown as below.

Note：

I. Airport Security Check Department may adjust the scope of carry-on items according to the security requirements. Please cooperate with the related department.

II. When there is insufficient storage space in the cabin, some carry-on baggage may need to be checked at the gate and may not be transported by the same flight. Please check in your carry-on baggage at the check-in counter in advance.

III. The foldable strollers (the sum of the length, width, and height of its contour size not exceeding 115 cm) can be carried into the cabin, and foldable strollers exceeding the above size must be transported as checked baggage.

1.3 Cabin Baggage(CBBG)

1.3.1 Cabin Baggage (hereinafter CBBG) refers to items that passengers bring into the cabin for which they have purchased a ticket. These items are generally not suitable for check-in due to their fragile, valuable nature, or because they are too large or heavy to meet the requirements for carry-on baggage storage. The items mainly include valuable or fragile items such as musical instruments, religious statues, precision instruments, and electrical appliances.

1.3.2 Passengers should apply for CBBG service no later than 6 hours before the flight departure by calling our hotline service, through the China Southern Airlines APP, or by visiting a China Southern ticketing office. The service is only confirmed after approval by China Southern.

1.3.3 CBBG should be charged according to the applicable fare for the number of seats actually occupied. The applicable taxes and fees are charged according to the number of passengers actually on the flight. There is no free baggage allowance for CBBG ticket.

1.3.4*CBBG* must be arranged in a window seat and must be connected to the passenger's seat. It should not obstruct or hinder the use of any exits or cabin aisles, nor should it cover any passenger information or instruction signs.

1.3.5The total weight of CBBG carried on each seat must not exceed 75 kilograms, and the maximum volume of CBBG must not exceed 145cm× 50cm × 30cm. Special oversized baggage exceeding the dimensions of 145cm × 50cm × 30cm cannot be brought into the cabin, cannot be included in the free baggage allowance, and must be handled according to the checked baggage regulations.

2 Checked Baggage

2.1 General Provisions

Passengers must check in their baggage with a valid ticket. Checked baggage must be well-packaged, securely locked, firmly tied, able to withstand a certain amount of pressure, and capable of being safely handled and transported under normal operating conditions. It should meet the following conditions:

(1) Suitcase, handbags and such kind of items should be locked;

(2) It is not allowed to bundled more than two pieces of baggage into one piece;

(3) It is not allowed to attach other items to baggage;

(4) Bamboo baskets, net bags, grass strings and plastic bags are not permitted to be used as packing materials;

(5) Passenger(s) name, detailed address and telephone number should be written on the baggage.

China Southern may refuse to accept and transport any baggage whose packing does not meet the requirements. Even if the transportation is approved, China Southern shall not be liable for damage or breakage, except as otherwise provided by Chinese laws and international conventions. Please refer to the local requirements if the immigration authorities of each country have other requirements on baggage.

Baggage will be transported on the same flight as the passenger whenever possible. For safety, security or operational reasons, China Southern may arrange other flights for transportation. If the passenger's baggage is transported by a subsequent flight, it will be delivered to the passenger by the carrier, and the passenger may be required by law to be physically present for customs clearance.

2.2 Limitations to Baggage Weight and Size

5.1.2.2.7 Pets with an anxious, delicate, or frail temperament, which are sensitive to high-temperature and high-altitude environments or unable to stay in a pet carrier for a long time.

5.1.2.2.8 Pets administered with sedatives or sleeping pills.

5.1.2.2.9 Pets with an obvious pungent odor.

5.1.2.2.10 Pets suffering from diseases of the ear, nose, and throat, cardiovascular system, cerebrovascular system, respiratory system, or digestive system, as well as pets that have undergone surgery within 48 hours.

5.1.2.2.11 The transportation preparations that the passenger is required to complete are not completed.

5.1.2.3 Requirements for Transport Documents

5.1.2.3.1 Animal quarantine certificate from a quarantine department.

5.1.2.3.2 Small Animal Vaccination Certificate.

5.1.2.3.3 Pet-in-cabin Transport Agreement that has been read and signed by the passenger.

5.1.2.4 For specific requirements regarding pet-in-cabin product, please refer to Pet-in-Cabin Regulations and Pet-in-Cabin Product Guidelines.

5.2 Service Dogs

5.2.1 Service dogs refer to dogs trained to provide assistance to people with a disability (such passengers shall provide an evidenced by a medical certificate), including assistance dogs, hearing dogs, and guide dogs for the blind. China Southern will not accept animals other than dogs as service animals for transportation.

5.2.2 The carriage of guide dogs shall be dealt as small animals. Service dogs, if they meet China Southern’s requirements, may accompany with passenger(s) with a disability who are eligible to travel in the passenger cabin.

5.2.3 The qualified passengers shall provide identity and quarantine proofs for their service dogs. Service dogs, together with its cage and food, can be carried free of charge, without taking up the free baggage allowance.

5.2.4 Emotional support dogs cannot be regarded as service dogs, and China Southern will not accept emotional support dogs for transport as service dogs.

5.3 Liability for Loss and Damage

5.3.1 Acceptance for carriage of small animals (include service dogs) is subject to the conditions that the passenger assumes full responsibility for such animal unless due to China Southern's faults. China Southern shall not be liable for injury to or loss, delay, sickness or death of such animal in the event that it is refused entry into or passage through any country, state or territory.

5.3.2 The passenger is fully liable for all damages or injuries which an animal might cause to other passengers or crew members.

5.3.3 China Southern will have no liability in respect of any such animal not having all the necessary exit, entry, health and other documents with respect to the animal's entry into or passage through any country, state or territory.

6 Declared Value for Baggage

China Southern does not offer baggage value declaration service.

7 Delivery of Checked Baggage

7.1 Passenger(s) shall collect their baggage as soon as it is available for collection at places of destination (or stopover).

7.2 With China Southern's consent, passenger(s) can collect their baggage at a stopover under the agreement of China Southern; however, the unused payment of the excess baggage will not be refunded.

7.3 If passenger(s) do not claim their baggage in time, China Southern will levy a fee for baggage storage. China Southern reserves the right to manage with perishable items within passenger(s) baggage during the first 24 hours after the arrival of the baggage.

7.4 China Southern is under no obligation to ascertain that the bearer of the baggage identification tag is entitled to delivery of the baggage and China Southern is not liable for any loss, damage, or expense arising out of or in connection with such delivery.

7.5 If a passenger claims the baggage without providing baggage identification tag(s), China Southern will deliver the baggage to this passenger only on condition that he/she provides a certificate approved by China Southern and, if required by China Southern, this passenger shall furnish adequate security to indemnify China Southern for any loss, damage or expense which may be incurred by China Southern as a result of such delivery.

7.6 Acceptance of baggage by the bearer of the baggage check, without complaint at the time of delivery, is prima facie evidence that the baggage has been delivered in good condition and in accordance with the contract of carriage.

7.7 If baggage is not collected staring 90 days from the next day of baggage's arrival, China Southern has the right to process it according to the regulations on un-delivered baggage.

8 Processing of Irregular Carriage of Baggage

8.1 In the event of delay, loss or damage in the carriage of baggage, China Southern and China Southern's authorized ground handling agents, along with the passenger, should fill up a Record Form of Accidents of Baggage Carriage, check out the situation and reasons, and report the results of investigation to passenger and departments concerned. If compensation for baggage happens, it can be processed at the journey's stopover or destination.

8.2 If the checked baggage fails to arrive on the same flight with the passenger(s) due to China Southern's reasons and thereby causing an inconvenience for the passenger(s), China Southern will provide a one-off compensation for temporary living necessities at a minimum of 200CNY for domestic flights and 500CNY or the equivalent value in currency for international and regional flights, based on the passenger's membership tiers and classes of service. If laws and regulations stipulate otherwise, they will be enforced in accordance with the corresponding laws and regulations.

9 Right to Refuse Carriage

(1) If the size, weight or quantity of unchecked baggage exceeds the standard set by China Southern, passengers should proactively go to the check-in counter or self-service baggage drop-off equipment to handle the check-in procedures in advance. The staff at Boarding gate will transfer the unchecked baggage to checked Baggage if exceeding the standard,which will require re-inspection and may result in the baggage not be transported on the same flight. Any costs and losses arising therefrom will be borne by the passengers themselves.

(2) China Southern reserves the right to refuse carriage if the passenger's baggage contains dangerous goods or items that are restricted for transport. For the regulations on the transportation of dangerous goods, and the application of right to refuse carriage, please refer to "China Southern Airlines General Conditions of Carriage for Passengers and Baggage".

10 Other Conditions

(1)The "China Southern Airlines Baggage Rules" are considered as part of the "China Southern Airlines General Conditions of Carriage for Passengers and Baggage".

(2)These rules are written in Chinese and translated into other languages. In case of any inconsistency between the Chinese version and the other language versions, the Chinese version shall prevail.

11 Effectiveness

This version of baggage rules is effective as of July 1, 2026.
